From the Editors Desk

Greetings from PIS, Ambegaon

The theme 'WORD WEAVERS – A Peek into the World of Short Literary Works' has been designed to help develop the children's appreciation of short stories and to help their reading and comprehension skills.

Various activities were conducted at PIS, Ambegaon to hone the children's writing skills and foster a love for books.

Literature opens the doors of imagination and understanding and allows us to see the way others see, to think the way others think. And above all, to feel. In order to bring the students closer to literature and its universal appeal Literary event was celebrated.

The prime motive in organizing this event was to create an understanding and awareness of the importance of reading great literary works, create passion in children for reading, encourage every student to read and to help them develop a love of reading. It was a week of flurry and excitement, with the children being fruitfully engaged in various competitions.

Various activities were conducted to hone written and spoken expression and foster the reading habit in the students. Apart from displays, work and theme based assembly, My favourite character, field trip etc was also organised for various classes. 'Get Lit Festival' is the concluding event of the theme.

Overall, the Literary Module brought the students closer to the magic of language and literature.

PIS, Ambegaon celebrated its Ninth Annual Day on 7th February, 2018 amidst great zest, vibrancy and elation.

The programme commenced with the lighting of the Ceremonial lamp by the Hon'ble Chief Guest Mrs Nirupa Kanitkar, Mr Sachin Ingale escorted by the other dignitaries and the Principal. The Principal, Mrs. Anagha Gholap welcomed the guests and introduced the Hon'ble Chief Guest to the gathering. She shared the School's Annual report of the past session.

The Hon'ble Chief Guest was visibly impressed by the impeccable performance showcased by the students across different grades. The event started off with a melodious song where the budding music talents of the school played and rendered mellifluous songs. The theme for the annual day was 'Being Humane' for primary section which was presented meticulously by students from grade 1 to grade 4. It was a journey into thriving compassion among characters and heart touching scenes interwoven into a dramatically overwhelming play composed by the students.

The Chief Guest was superlative in her appreciation of the students, teachers and management for a classic programme presented. She stated that she felt highly honoured and elated to have visited PIS. She lauded the vision and the relentless hard work done by students and their mentors for presenting such a message oriented programme.

The event closed with a grand finale celebration by the participants of std 11th on the famous song koi kahe... It was indeed a spectacular display of talent and fervour.

The programme culminated with the National Song.

PIS, Ambegaon celebrated its Nineth Annual Day on 7th February, 2018 amidst great zest, vibrancy and elation.

The programme commenced with the lighting of the Ceremonial lamp by the Hon'ble Chief Guest Mrs Savani Kulkarni, escorted by the other dignitaries and the Principal. The Principal, Mrs. Anagha Gholap welcomed the guests and introduced the Hon'ble Chief Guest to the gathering. She shared the School's Annual report of the past session. This was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony, where the Hon'ble Chief Guest gave away prizes to the academically meritorious pupils of the school.

The event started off with a melodious song where the budding music talents of the school played and rendered mellifluous songs. The theme for the annual day was 'When Music Went Missing' for secondary section which was presented meticulously by students from grade 5 to grade 9. It was a journey into thriving compassion among characters and heart touching scenes interwoven into a dramatically overwhelming play composed by the students. The play also had musical elements to bring symphony and melody into life.

The Chief Guest was superlative in her appreciation of the students, teachers and management for a classic programme presented. She stated that she felt highly honoured and elated to have visited PIS. She lauded the vision and the relentless hard work done by students and their mentors for presenting such a message oriented programme.

The event closed with a grand finale celebration by the participants of all the dances on the famous song Love you Jindagee... It was indeed a spectacular display of talent and fervour.

The programme culminated with the National Song.
